

A La Crosse County Health Department
Nature Connections Workshop

Agenda

Thursday July 20, 2017 || 9:00am—Noon

Conference Room East, Lunda Center, Western Technical College

- 9:00am - 9:15am: Welcome and Introductions
- 9:15am - 10:00am: The Nature Connection: Building the Case for Nature
- The Evidence for Nature and Health
(Megan Muehlenbruch, MPH, CHES—La Crosse County Health Department)
 - Our Built Environment and Health
(Karen Mumford, Associate Professor – UW-Eau Claire Watershed Institute)
- 10:00am—10:10am: Break
- 10:10am—10:55am: The Change Process
- One Step at a Time: Improving a Campus Landscape & Setting Standards for Design
(Daria Hutchinson, Landscape Designer—UW-Eau Claire)
 - The Paradigm for Design and Opportunities for Community Building
(Judson Steinback, Owner—Coulee Region Ecoscapes)
- 10:55am—11:00am Break
- 11:00am – 11:45am: WTC Tour: What Does Nature in Design Really Look Like?
(Casey Meehan, Sustainability Coordinator and Jay McHenry, Director of Facilities—WTC)
- 11:45am – 12:00pm: Questions, Closing Remarks, Evaluations

Coffee, Tea, and Water will be provided

Visit the Nature Connections web site at: www.natureconnectionsjax.org

Questions? Contact Megan Muehlenbruch, Health Educator at mmuehlenbruch@lacrossecounty.org or 608-785-6236